TANF TELECONFERENCE SERIES
FALL /WINTER 2007-08

The Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, in collaboration with the American Public Human Services Association, continues its TANF teleconference series with three calls addressing ways states can both promote and support work and improve client engagement in work and training activities. These free calls are open to state and local human service agency administrators and staff, provider groups, and nonprofits interested in TANF-related issues. There is no need to RSVP for the calls, simply dial in.

Call Time: 2:00 - 3:15 PM (Eastern Time)
Call-In Number: 1- 877- 410 - 5657
Passcode: TANF

- January 9, 2008 – More Than Just a Visit: A Home Visiting Curriculum that Teaches Skills and Improves Outcomes

Many states and localities use home visiting programs to reach out to families that are struggling. This call will discuss how TANF agencies can use home visits to build life-coping skills that boost engagement in work activities. The call will focus on a University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension program which has developed a curriculum to be used in home visits with TANF clients.

~ Final Call ~

- Community Colleges and TANF – February 6, 2008

This call will focus on partnerships between TANF agencies and community colleges. How can the TANF agency promote college education through the community college system? How have programs connected successfully, and what did it take to make the partnership successful for the agencies and for clients?

Note: For the confirmed schedule and materials for upcoming calls as well as information about previous calls in this series and the Spring/Summer 2007 Teleconference Series, including audio files and materials, go to http://www.cbpp.org/pubs/tanf.htm