

Avoiding Problems With Your RA Claim

How To Ensure Timely And Accurate Reemployment Assistance (RA) Benefit Payments

Be Honest

Intentionally withholding or providing misleading, inaccurate information on a claim for RA benefits is considered fraud, which is punishable by law. Be sure to double check all information you provide is correct, when filing a claim for RA benefits.

Register As A Jobseeker

You must register with EmployFlorida at employflorida.com to be eligible to collect RA benefits. The services offered are designed to help you get back to work as soon as possible.

Actively Search For Work

You must conduct at least 5 work search activities for each week that you file a claim for benefits. Be sure to keep a record of your work search activities, as your claim may be selected for an audit at any time.

DO NOT Refuse Suitable Work

Refusing a suitable offer of work could result in a denial or delay of your benefit payments.

Report ALL Earnings

You must report ALL your gross earnings (before tax and other deductions) for each week you work when requesting RA benefits, including part-time or temporary work, as well as other required reportable income.

Read The Information Provided

You are responsible for knowing and following Florida's RA rules when filing for RA benefits. To prevent errors that may result in an overpayment, you must carefully read all the materials sent to you and respond to requests.

Visit our website at FloridaJobs.org if you have additional questions about your claim.
