RECOMMENDED ORDER OF SPECIAL DEPUTY

TO: Altemese Smith,
Bureau Chief,
Reemployment Assistance Program
DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

This matter comes before the undersigned Special Deputy pursuant to the Petitioner's protest of the Respondent's determination dated April 23, 2013.

After due notice to the parties, a telephone hearing was held on August 21, 2013. The Petitioner, represented by its president, appeared and testified. The Respondent, represented by a Department of Revenue Tax Auditor III, appeared and testified.

The record of the case, including the recording of the hearing and any exhibits submitted in evidence, is herewith transmitted. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were not received.

Issue:

Whether the Petitioner's tax rates were properly computed, pursuant to Section 443.131, Florida Statutes; Rules 73B-10.026; 10.031, Florida Administrative Code.

Whether the Petitioner's liability for reemployment assistance contributions was properly determined pursuant to Sections 443.1215, 1216, 1217; 443.131, Florida Statutes.

Findings of Fact:

1. Huesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. was a Florida corporation which operated a business as a drywall contractor beginning in 1986. Lawrence Huesler was president of the corporation and Denise Huesler was secretary/treasurer.

2. In 2011 Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. was involved in a large construction project. The general contractor filed for bankruptcy and did not pay the final draw to Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. In order to avoid further debt Lawrence Hauesler, under the advice of legal counsel, decided to dissolve the corporation.
3. In preparation for the dissolution of Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc., Lawrence Hauesler formed a new corporation, Hauesler Marvin Inc., the Petitioner in this case, on September 12, 2011. Lawrence Hauesler is president of the corporation and Denise Hauesler is secretary/treasurer.
4. Lawrence Hauesler decided to wait until the end of the calendar year to discontinue doing business under Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. During the fourth quarter 2011 Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. had nine employees. The corporation was dissolved effective December 31, 2011. Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. notified the Department of Revenue that it had discontinued business on January 1, 2012.
5. The Petitioner began business operations on January 1, 2012, and acquired the entire workforce and some assets of Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. The Petitioner registered with the Department of Revenue for payment of unemployment tax as a new business entity and did not disclose that the Petitioner had acquired the workforce or assets of Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. As a result the Department of Revenue assigned the new business tax rate of .0270.
6. The Department of Revenue has a computer program that identifies the social security numbers of employees who are transferred from one employer to another employer based on previously filed tax reports. The computer program identified that the nine employees reported by Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. during the fourth quarter 2011 were reported as employees of the Petitioner for the first quarter 2012. Further investigation revealed that Lawrence Hauesler and Denise Hauesler were officers of both the Petitioner and Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc.
7. By determination mailed on or before April 23, 2013, the Department of Revenue notified the Petitioner that since it appeared that the Petitioner had acquired the workforce of Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. on or about January 1, 2012, and since it appeared that at the time of the transfer there was common ownership, management, or control between the Petitioner and Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc., the unemployment experience attributable to Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. was transferred to the Petitioner resulting in an increased tax rate. The Petitioner filed a timely protest by mail postmarked May 8, 2013.

Conclusions of Law:

8. Section 443.131(3), Florida Statutes, provides:
  - (g) Transfer of unemployment experience upon transfer or acquisition of a business.--Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon transfer or acquisition of a business, the following conditions apply to the assignment of rates and to transfers of unemployment experience:
    - 1.a. If an employer transfers its trade or business, or a portion thereof, to another employer and, at the time of the transfer, there is any common ownership, management, or control of the two employers, the unemployment experience attributable to the transferred trade or business shall be transferred to the employer to whom the business is so transferred. The rates of both employers shall be recalculated and made effective as of the beginning of the calendar quarter immediately following the date of the transfer of the trade or business unless the transfer occurred on the first day of a calendar quarter, in which case the rate shall be recalculated as of that date.
9. Section 443.131(3)(g)7.b., Florida Statutes, provides that "trade or business" shall include the employer's workforce.
10. Rule 73B-10.031(3), Florida Administrative Code, provides in pertinent part that for the purpose of implementing Section 443.131(3)(g), F.S.:
  - (a) The term "ownership" means any proprietary interest in a business, including, but not limited to, shares of stock in a corporation, partnership interest in a partnership or membership interest in a Limited Liability Company (LLC).

- (b) “Common ownership” exists when a person has ownership in two or more businesses.
  - (c) A person in “management” includes any officer or director of a corporation, owner of a sole proprietorship, partner in a partnership, manager of an LLC, or person with the ability to direct the activities of an employing unit, either individually or in concert with others.
  - (d) “Common management” exists when a person concurrently occupies management positions in two or more businesses.
  - (e) A person in “control” of a business includes any officer or director of a corporation, owner of a sole proprietorship, partner in a partnership, manager of an LLC, or other person with the ability, directly or indirectly, individually or in concert with others, to influence or direct management, activities or policies of the business through ownership of stock, voting rights, contract, or other means. Control exists when an employee leasing company dictates or specifies the businesses with which a client company must contract.
  - (f) “Common control” exists when a person or group of persons has control of two or more businesses.
  - (g) The phrase “transfer or acquisition” encompasses any and all types of transfers and acquisitions including, but not limited to, assignments, changes in legal identity or form, consolidations, conveyances, mergers, name changes, purchase and sale agreements, reorganizations, stock transfers and successions.
  - (h) The phrase “trade or business or a portion thereof” includes but is not limited to assets, customers, management, organization and workforce.
  - (i) For the purpose of determining issues relating to the transfer of employment records upon transfer or acquisition of a business, the term “person” has the meaning set forth in Section 7701(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.
11. The evidence presented in this case reveals that the Petitioner acquired the entire workforce of Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. on January 1, 2012, when Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. ceased business. At the time of the transfer of the workforce Lawrence Hauesler and Denise Hauesler were officers of both corporations. As officers of the corporations the corporate officers were in control of both corporations. Since there was common ownership, management, or control of the two corporations the law requires that the unemployment experience of Hauesler Marvin Interiors, Inc. be transferred to the Petitioner effective January 1, 2012.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the determination dated April 23, 2013, be AFFIRMED.

Respectfully submitted on August 22, 2013.
