Discussion

Topics included:

- What percentage of students get jobs within 90 days of completing a degree/certificate?
- Movement to online education.
- Utilizing continuing education courses and real-life experience to open more opportunities for students.
- Developing partnerships with companies such as Apple and with libraries to increase technology availability to more students.
- Ken Lawson reviewed the three questions presented to members during the initial workgroup meeting:
  - Internally, how are you bringing government, academia and business together?
    - From the private college prospective, partnerships have been developed between businesses, nonprofits and government employers to address education and workforce needs.
    - CareerSource Florida recommended members consider the Florida Chamber of Commerce’s targeted industries, strategically focusing on efforts that have the potential to yield greater impacts.
    - Encourage employers to consider potential candidates for available positions regardless of their credentials, taking a more holistic view on potential candidates when it comes to job performance ability. This includes looking at non-traditional places for employees and fostering partnerships with postsecondary institutions to identify prospective employees.
    - Changing public misperception of certain occupations such as manufacturing being a dangerous and dirty occupation. Consider rebranding and promoting these career pathways that can lead to high wage jobs.
  - Is Florida’s Education system flexible and responsive in providing stackable credentials for students in order for them to be successful in the workforce?
    - The Florida College System’s high-quality credentials are stackable toward a degree. The system is intentionally structured to be flexible for students; for example, students with a nationally recognized industry certification can be awarded credit toward a degree.
• Discussed developing a goal based on two challenges: interstate mobility and retaining students in Florida.
  o Katie Crofoot Liebert provided an example work plan from another workgroup to guide members’ development of goals and strategies for next week.

• Next Steps
  o A representative from Embry-Riddle will be invited to speak during the next meeting.
  o Ken Lawson requested each member think about high-level goals and strategies in reference to the statutory requirements. He referenced the work plan provided in the meeting materials.
  o Ken Lawson requested that the Florida Chamber’s 2030 report be provided to all workgroup members.
