INFORMATION

DISASTER UNEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE

(DUA)

You may be eligible for DUA if:

> You are unemployed or partially unemployed due to the recently declared disaster; and

> You are not eligible for regular or extended benefits in Florida or any other state or you have exhausted all reemployment assistance benefits available to you; and

> You are able and available for work.

To file a DUA claim, you will be asked to furnish the following:

> Your Social Security number;

> One other form of identification;

> If you are not a U.S. Citizen, your Immigration and Naturalization (INS) documentation. This information will be verified with INS for current work authorization;

> The names and addresses of all employers you have worked for (in Florida and any other state) during the past 18 months;

> Any check stubs you may have for employment within the last 18 months;

> If self-employed, your latest Federal Income Tax returns and/or profit and loss statements.

To receive DUA you must be willing to accept any suitable work offered to you.

INFORMATION

REEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE BENEFITS

(RA)

You may be eligible for regular state RA if:

You are unemployed or partially unemployed through no fault of your own; and

You have worked in two calendar quarters of your base period and have earned wages equal to at least 1.5 times your highest quarter in your base period and not less than $3400.

You are able and available for work and actively seeking work.

To file a RA claim, you will be asked to furnish the following:

Your Social Security number;

One other form of identification;

If you are not a U.S. Citizen, your Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) documentation. This information will be verified with INS for current work authorization;

The names and addresses of all employers you have worked for (in Florida and any other state) during the past 18 months;

Any check stubs you may have for employment within the last 18 months.

To receive RA you must be willing to accept any suitable work offered to you.