

Agency for Workforce Innovation Monthly Accomplishments for July 2009 July 31, 2009

Below is a brief summary of the activities and accomplishments of the Agency for Workforce Innovation.

OFFICE OF EARLY LEARNING (OEL)

American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) Activities:

- To date, 11,103 families have been served -using ARRA funds. Total benefits to date are $5,034,431.95.
- Appropriate an additional $2 billion in Child Care Development Fund (CCDF) discretionary funds - As part of the federal economic stimulus package, Public Law 111-5, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA) appropriates an additional $2 billion in CCDF discretionary funds. The ARRA makes this funding available to state, territory, and tribal lead agencies for Fiscal Year (FY) 2009. The ARRA helps the Agency and early learning coalitions by providing funds for maintaining and expanding services to children and families facing difficult economic circumstances. In coordination with staff across the Agency and the early learning coalitions, the Agency developed and released technical guidance so coalitions could quickly start using ARRA funds to serve school readiness clients. It was important to provide guidance in a timely manner as coalitions strive to meet the growing demand for child care services.
- Secure the funding during the 2009 Legislative Session - Begin the development of the Early Learning Information System (ELIS). ARRA funds will be used to support the federal portion of this development. OEL staff and other stakeholders were assigned to the review team and have reviewed and rated all vendor proposals. The procurement process for identifying a vendor will continue through October 2009.
- OEL policy staff is currently reviewing the emergency rule - for serving Unemployment Compensation clients and are in the process of promulgating the official Rule. The final rule will be promulgated by August 2009.

Other Activities:

- OEL Research Bulletin: The Research Bulletin is a new publication from the research team which highlights specific topics in early learning applied research. The Bulletin is intended to inform the field by providing findings that are of interest to early learning stakeholders. The first Research Bulletin focused on the importance of quality experiences for children and how long-term investments benefit the state's economy. The Bulletin serves as a means to provide information on the most up to date research information relating to early learning and its benefits for children, families, businesses, and communities. - US Department of Health and Human Services (USDHHS) Improper Payment Review: Florida completed the USDHHS Improper Authorization for Payment Review and submitted the final report on June 29, 2009. The Improper Payment Information Act of 2002 (IPIA) requires certain federal programs to have a national error rate, the Improper Authorization for Payment Review was implemented on October 1, 2007, Florida was required to review child care cases for the 2007-08 Federal Fiscal Year and submit the final report by June 30, 2009. In FY 2006 Florida participated in a pilot program, the Agency has made significant improvements since the pilot program review. The results of the pilot study and the review are provided below:

	2005-06 Pilot Study	2007-08 Review
Percentage of cases with errors	35%	20.65%
Percentage of cases that have an improperly authorized payment	35%	11.23%
Percentage of improperly authorized payments	18%	2.54%
Average amount of improperly authorized payment	$130.35	$69

- Rule Promulgation: The Policy Unit and the Office of General Counsel filed two Rule Certifications with the Department of State on July 21, 2009. These rules will become effective 20 days following their filing, which is on August 10, 2009. The rules are:
 - Substitute Instructors for the VPK Program: The purpose of the proposed rule is to establish the required qualifications of substitute instructors for the VPK program for the school-year and summer VPK program types and to define the circumstances and time limits for which a VPK provider may assign a substitute instructor to a VPK classroom.
 - Child Care Resource and Referral: The proposed rule will establish uniform child care resource and referral programs, addressing minimum standards for providing child care resource and referral services to families within each early learning coalition's county or multicounty service area, including the methods of providing referrals and the use of the Agency's statewide information system with respect to resource and referral.
- Variance and Waiver Requests: The OEL released a website designed to assist Early Learning Coalitions with tracking requests for variance to existing rule. Coalitions will now have the ability to monitor the progress of their requests through the approval process.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION (UC) SERVICES

American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) Activities:

- Senate Bill 810 - The Agency for Workforce Innovation announced June 2, 2009 that an estimated 250,000 unemployed Floridians are eligible for Extended Benefits (EB) as a result of legislation signed by Governor Charlie Crist. Senate Bill 810 allows eligible Floridians to receive additional temporary unemployment compensation made available through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.
- EB Payments to Customers - EB payments began on July 2, 2009. As of July 30, 2009, there were 81,141 EB determinations issued, 75,425 EB claims paid and $164,524,923 distributed directly to Florida's EB customers. Payments were also made retroactive to February 22 for eligible claimants. This new law will provide a financial lifeline to Floridians who have exhausted their unemployment benefits and boost the state's economy with the infusion of an estimated $418 million in federal recovery funds through the end of the year.

- New Temporary Federal Additional Compensation Program: Section 2002 of Division B, Title II, the Assistance for Unemployed Workers and Struggling Families Act, of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 provides a $25 weekly supplement to the unemployment compensation of eligible claimants. The Federal Additional Compensation (FAC) is payable to individuals who are otherwise entitled to regular unemployment compensation for weeks of unemployment. The first additional $25 weekly payments were processed March 19, 2009. The cumulative total paid as of July 22, 2009 is $234,721,398 on 746,035 claims.
- Extended Emergency Unemployment Compensation: The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 extends the time period individuals can qualify for Emergency Unemployment Compensation benefits from March 29, 2009 to December 20, 2009. The cumulative total paid as of July 22, 2009 is $282,787,246 to 408,453 customers.

Other Activities:

Unemployment Compensation Services continued setting records in the history of the Florida UC program.

- The amount of benefits paid during week ending July 18, 2009 set a new weekly record and totaled $217,497,306.
- The amount of benefits paid on July 14, 2009 set a new daily record and totaled $65,308,434.
- The number of claims processed during week ending July 18, 2009 set a new weekly record and totaled 142,724.
- The number of claims processed on July 14, 2009 set a new daily record and totaled 41,689.
