Florida's May Employment Figures Released

www.employflorida.com – www.FlaRecovery.com

TALLAHASSEE – Florida's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate for May 2009 is 10.2 percent. This represents 943,000 jobless out of a labor force of 9,232,000. The unemployment rate is 0.5 percentage point higher than the revised April rate of 9.7 percent and is up 4.4 percentage points from the May 2008 rate. The state's current unemployment rate is 0.8 percentage point higher than the national unemployment rate of 9.4 percent. The last time the unemployment rate was higher than May 2009 was October 1975 when it was 11.0 percent.

Florida's total nonagricultural employment in May 2009 is 7,389,100, representing a job loss of 417,500, or -5.3 percent compared to May 2008. This is steeper than the national rate of decline for May which is -3.9 percent over the year. The May 2009 job loss continues the trend of annual declines that began in August 2007. The downturn started with declines in construction jobs, but has now spread to most all other major industries.

"At the Agency for Workforce Innovation, we remain dedicated to strengthening Florida's families and bolstering our economy by enhancing our services and benefits to millions of Floridians," said Agency Director Cynthia R. Lorenzo. "Under the leadership of Governor Crist, the state's workforce system provides a vast array of services including job placement, job training and re-employment assistance at 88 One-Stop Career Centers located throughout the state and through the Employ Florida Marketplace, www.employflorida.com, which currently lists nearly 118,000 job opportunities."

The Agency is currently administering $1.5 billion in American Recovery and Reinvestment Act funds, which is having a tremendous impact on Floridians in need of workforce development services, quality child care and unemployment compensation benefit payments. Federal Recovery funds currently being administered through AWI include the following:

- An estimated $418 million in Federal Extended Benefits, with payments to begin next month. Notices to nearly 80,000 potentially eligible Floridians were mailed from the Agency earlier this month, with a total of an estimated 250,000 anticipated by the end of the year. Unemployment Compensation customers who believe they may qualify for Extended Benefits are encouraged to visit www.floridajobs.org and apply online. Customers may also view eligibility requirements and other Frequently Asked Questions at www.floridajobs.org.
- An additional $25 weekly in Federal Additional Compensation since March 19, 2009 - to date, more than $108.5 million in Federal Additional Compensation has been paid to nearly 569,000 Floridians. It is estimated that $345 million will be paid out by July 2010.
- Nearly $1 billion in additional federal Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) benefits – eligible claimants began qualifying last month under the new provisions of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. So far, more than $37.5 million has been distributed to nearly 80,000 claimants.
- $165 million in workforce services – these funds are being used to meet the needs of local communities for enhanced job placement and job training services, including summer youth programs, adult employment programs that match job seekers with businesses and additional services at One-Stop Career Centers.
- $105 million for Early Learning Programs – these funds will provide approximately 20,000 high-quality early learning slots for children so income-eligible parents can work. The funds also provide for system enhancements to better serve children and families.

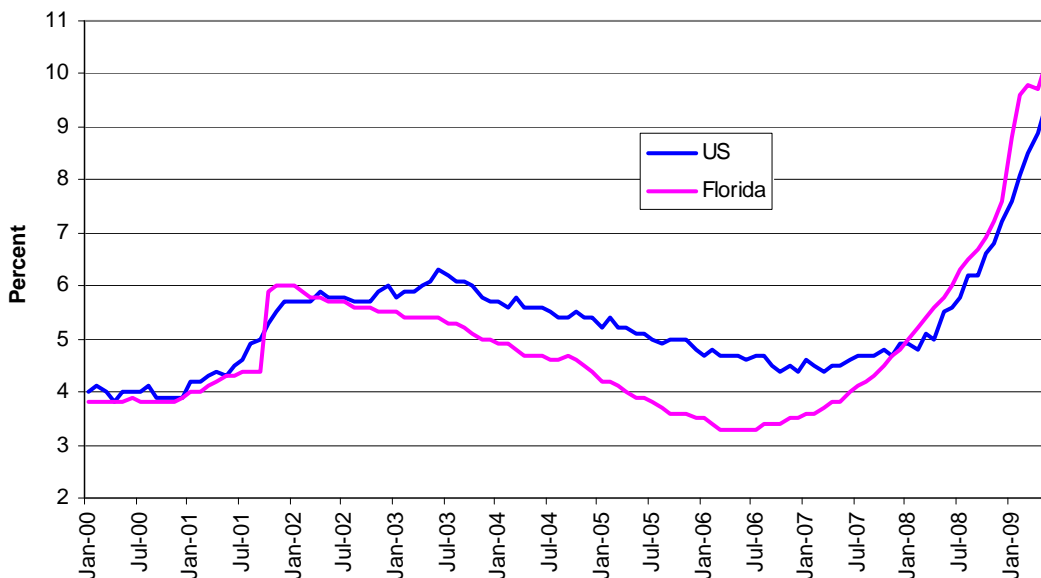

For more information about Florida's use of federal dollars made available through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, please visit www.FlaRecovery.com.

Florida's Nonagricultural Employment by Industry (Seasonally Adjusted)

- The number of jobs in Florida is down 417,500 in May 2009 compared to a year ago. The industry losing the most jobs is professional and business services (-92,600, -8.0 percent).
- Other industries losing jobs over the year include: construction (-90,800 jobs, -17.4 percent); trade, transportation, and utilities (-82,200 jobs, -5.2 percent); leisure and hospitality (-55,100 jobs, -5.8 percent); manufacturing (-40,100 jobs, -10.7 percent); financial activities (-23,500 jobs, -4.5 percent); other services (-15,100 jobs, -4.4 percent); total government (-12,500 jobs, -1.1 percent); and information (-10,500 jobs, -6.7 percent).
- These industry job losses are partially due to weakness in employment services; specialty trade contractors; motor vehicle and parts dealers; food services and drinking places; fabricated metal product manufacturing; credit intermediation; repair and maintenance; local government; and publishing.
- Private education and health services (+5,000 jobs, +0.5 percent) is the only sector gaining jobs among Florida's major industries. All of the increase is due to health services primarily in nursing and residential care facilities. Private education declined by 1,300 jobs (-1.0 percent) over the year.

Local Area Unemployment Statistics (Not Seasonally Adjusted)

- In May 2009, Liberty County has the state's lowest unemployment rate (5.0 percent), followed by Monroe County (6.2 percent); Franklin County (6.4 percent); Alachua, Leon, and Walton counties (6.6 percent each); and Jackson County (6.8 percent). Many of the counties with low unemployment rates have a relatively high percentage of government workers.
- Flagler County, at 14.4 percent, has the highest unemployment rate in Florida in May, followed by St. Lucie County (13.3 percent); Indian River County (13.0 percent); Hernando County (12.7 percent); and Lee County (12.4 percent). Flagler County has the highest unemployment rate in the state for the sixth consecutive month. The area's high jobless rate is mainly due to manufacturing layoffs and continued weakness in the housing market. There were 33 Florida counties with double-digit unemployment rates in May 2009, up from 24 in April 2009.

Area Nonagricultural Employment by Industry (Not Seasonally Adjusted)

- All metro areas in the state lost jobs over the year in May 2009. Metro areas with the largest annual declines include Miami-Ft. Lauderdale-Pompano Beach (-101,800 jobs, -4.3 percent); Orlando-Kissimmee (-64,200 jobs, -5.9 percent); and Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater (-53,900 jobs, -4.4 percent). The Sebastian-Vero Beach MSA has the highest rate of job loss at -8.8 percent over the year.
- The Ft. Walton Beach-Crestview-Destin MSA (-2,400 jobs, -2.9 percent) has the smallest annual decline. Gainesville MSA has the smallest rate of job decline, at -2.5 percent over the year.

Note: These unemployment and job growth rates are estimates, which are primarily based on surveys created and mandated by the US Bureau of Labor Statistics in cooperation with the Florida Agency for Workforce Innovation.

The unemployment rate is derived from Florida household surveys conducted by the US Census Bureau under contract with the US Bureau of Labor Statistics. The job growth rate is derived from Florida employer surveys conducted by the US Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Both estimates are revised on a monthly basis. In addition, these estimates are benchmarked (revised) annually based on actual counts from Florida's Unemployment Compensation tax records and other data.
