Military Family Employment Advocacy Program

February 2019

The Military Family Employment Advocacy Program (MFEAP) is a state program designed to deliver priority workforce services for active duty military spouses and family members through Military Family Employment Advocates located in local career centers. The MFEAP Advocates work in Local Workforce Development Areas that have the densest concentrations of active duty military personnel and bases within the state.

Persons eligible for assistance through this program include spouses and dependents of active duty military personnel, activated Florida National Guard members, and other military reservists whose units have been activated.

Services provided under the MFEAP include job search and placement assistance, career planning and counseling, case management, resume assistance, assessment and testing services, interviewing skills training, referral to educational and training programs, job fairs, job clubs, information on Reemployment Assistance, and many other services. Military spouses are also eligible to receive training and other supportive services under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act.

Military Family Employment Advocates are located at the following centers:

- CareerSource Escarosa, 3670 – A North L Street, Pensacola, 32505
