PAYMENT INFORMATION

I hereby authorize the Department of Economic Opportunity to follow the same payment option I chose in my most recent Reemployment Assistance application.

TAX WITHHOLDING INFORMATION

Reemployment Assistance benefits are fully taxable if you are required to file a tax return.

Public Law 103-465 requires the Department of Economic Opportunity to deduct and withhold federal income tax from Reemployment Assistance if an individual receiving those benefits voluntarily requests such deduction and withholding. You may request a withholding deduction equal to 10% of your weekly assistance for federal income taxes.

A statement, Form 1099-G, will be furnished to you at the end of January stating the amount of benefits paid and withheld during the prior year. The same information will be transmitted to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

The income taxes deducted are held in trust for the U.S. Government. All refunds must be obtained from the IRS on any overpayment of income taxes.

The department is not responsible for refunding withheld taxes.

It may be necessary for you to make estimated tax payments. For more information on when these payments should be made, refer to the IRS publication titled "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax" or contact the IRS. PLEASE DIRECT ALL QUESTIONS CONCERNING YOUR INCOME TAX LIABILITY TO THE IRS.

I hereby authorize the Department of Economic Opportunity to follow the same tax withholding option I chose in my most recent Reemployment Assistance application.
